Short Description

No other collection of rugs can give you beauty and simplicity in one wonderful package like the Elegance Collection rugs can.

Description

No other collection of rugs can give you beauty and simplicity in one wonderful package like the Elegance Collection rugs can. With its chenille yarns and alternating horizontal flat braids, these rugs create a textured softness that is literally hard to resist. The chenille polypropylene yarn provides a highly durable material upon which these rugs are made of, ensuring that it will withstand both indoor and outdoor use. These rugs are stain resistant and completely reversible, giving you double the usage without worrying about ruining its beautiful color. The Elegance Collection will surely bring you joy for years to come. The Ebony rug from the Elegance collection clashes black with an array of colors to create one of the most eccentric, yet classy rugs out there. It incorporates a beautiful striped pattern that is perfect for enhancing that living room, den, office, or patio.
