Description

The Sandy Beaches Chiminea offers a compact punch of warmth and function to your outdoor space while adding style to your patio. The Sandy Beaches Chiminea delivers heat to keep you and your family warm and toasty and its small size makes it great for patios, balconies, porches, or anywhere with limited space. It includes a removable lid to keep the elements out of the fire box when it's not in use. Remove this lid to reveal a grilling spot, great for barbeques over an open flame. A hinged safety screen ensures anyone standing around the chiminea does not get blasted with sparks or debris from the fire. Made from a lightweight aluminum metal, this chiminea is amazingly durable for its lightweight built and includes everything you need for a cozy hearth for gathering during the nights! With premium materials and quality craftsmanship, the Sandy Beaches Chiminea is designed to assist you in making the most of your outdoor space.

The chiminea rain cover is made from a waterproof UV protective fabric that's ultra durable, making it weather-resistant. The drawstring bottom allows for a snug fit and keeps your chiminea looking beautiful season from season.
