Description

The Tahiti Square End Table (SO-2011-303) by Source Outdoor is the perfect addition to your modern sofa set, providing a place to put drinks, reading material, or whatever you enjoy while lounging outside. The angled legs, glass top and espresso colored wicker give this end table a fantastic modern look. The wicker is UV treated to prevent color fade, and it is made of high density polyethylene so the color cannot be chipped off or peeled away. The end table's commercial grade construction makes it well suited for homes and businesses that want to get a lot of use from their outdoor furniture. With style and quality construction, there is nothing more you can ask for in an outdoor end table.
