Description

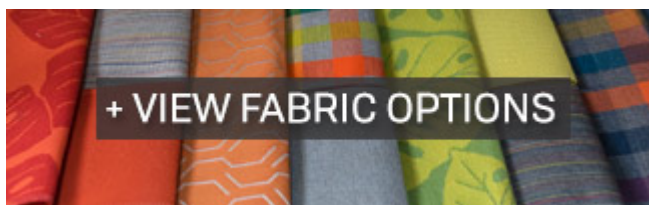

The St Tropez Dining Arm Chair (SO-2003-163) by Source Outdoor features bold lines and flat woven wicker, providing a clean, modern look. This chair was designed to look great with modern wicker patio furniture, especially the St Tropez collection. The commercial grade construction of this chair makes it suitable for both homes and businesses that desire long-lasting outdoor furniture. The wicker is high density polyethylene, which means its color will not be lost to peeling, chipping or fading. The cushions are covered in an off-white, outdoor grade polyester. The cushions are also available in a wide range of Sunbrella® colors to suit your patio decor needs. With quality construction and great style, you cannot go wrong with this dining chair.
