Description

The Zen Club Chair (SO-2002-101) by Source Outdoor has slightly arched armrests and back, giving it a uniquely modern look that pairs well with its clean lines and flat woven wicker. The cushions are covered in an off-white, outdoor grade polyester. The cushions are also available in a large selection of Sunbrella® fabric colors, making it easy to match your patio decor. The wicker is high density polyethylene, which has been UV treated to prevent chipping, peeling or fading from sun exposure. With its commercial grade construction, this chair works great for both homes and businesses that are in need of quality outdoor furniture.
