Description

Featuring a rustic design and burners that give off up to 50,000 BTUs of heat, the Antique Stone Rectangle Firepit (568LP-ANS) by Real Flame is sure to become the centerpiece of any outdoor seating area. It's heavy-gauge steel frame is covered by a light weight fibre-concrete finish that is cast from hand chiseled limestone to create an authentic appeal at a fraction of the weight of real limestone. Included with the firepit is a lava rock filler and a weather proof cover for when not in use. The Antique Stone collection also includes an electronic ignition and is certified for use with a standard 20 lb propane tank. You can choose to conceal your tank with a matching tank cover, which is sold separately.
