Description

The Gravelstone Rectangle Fire Table (6001-FT5828) by Sunset West. This beautiful rectangular gravelstone fire table made by Sunset West provides the perfect ambiance for outdoor living. The elegance and function of its design is the perfect complement for enjoying breezy nights on the deck or patio. An impressive centerpiece for entertaining or relaxing, its height and size is comfortable for both conversation and dining through all seasons. The glass guard surround (sold separately) provides protection from the elements and enhances the atmosphere with a beautiful reflection.

The GFRC base is inset with a CSA drop-in floating burner and safety valve, which functions on propane gas. The perfect level of warmth is achieved by manual ignition and a manageable flame over black lava rock; the fire table also includes a thermocouple and heat sensor as additional safety features.

The propane tank (not included and is not contained in the fire table) can be cleverly concealed under the end table cover (sold separately) which serves as a functional complimentary piece.
