Shorea is a tropical hardwood with properties similar to teak. Shorea is even stronger and heavier than teak and is ideally suited for the outdoors. Oxford Garden furniture weathers naturally with time, turning to a warm shade of gray.

About The Manufacturer

For years Oxford Garden has furnished moments lived outdoors. Oxford Garden's collections embody a clean, timeless style and are built for both residential and commercial environments. In its beginnings, Oxford Garden specialized in patio and garden furniture, crafting each piece from shorea wood, a dense tropical hardwood, comparable to teak.
