The Kakaban line takes its inspiration straight from nature, reflecting the simple, powerful nature of virgin forest whose ethereal canopy reaches heavenward, or a lagoon filled with hundreds of strange, breathtakingly gorgeous stingless jellyfish. These hypnotic creatures dance through nutrient-dense Lake Jellyfish, throbbing and floating in an odd ballet, nonchalant and airy without a care in the world. You'll feel the same when you sink into the soft, crisp-white cushions that perfectly complement the collection's signature silver-stained teak, and black, powder-coated aluminum frame. This is carefree, timeless furniture for a carefree, relaxed you.

The fabulous new Kakaban sectional is designed for the embrace of the outdoors. The aged silver teak stain has already put you in harmony with nature-no need for maintenance of any kind-so its sleek, elegant sophistication will endure well into the future.
